

Essential Understanding: Regional landscapes are influenced by the cultural, economic, and political characteristics of their inhabitants.

My monument is...

Monuments? Present & Represent!

Evaluate your monument. Does this monument reflect its people? Choose three cultural elements to serve as your examples for why or why not.

Create a 4 slide presentation on Google. See the MINIMUM requirements below.

Slide 1: Name of monument, picture and location (city, country, region) of monument, year completed

Slide 2: Three (3) or more interesting and awesome facts about the monument.

Slide 3: Three (3) or more cultural elements - Evaluate this monument. Does this monument reflect its people? Choose three cultural elements as examples to show how or how it does not reflect its inhabitants.

Slide 4: Your name, class period, works cited OR you can share it with me on Google docs.

GRADING RUBRIC FOR MINI-PROJECT - SLIDE SHOW, 40 pts possible

Each worth 10	Exceeds - 10	Meets - 7-8	Approaching - 5-6	Nope. 1
Completion - Slide 1 & 4	Meets all and exceeds the minimum requirements. WOW!	Meets all minimum requirements.	Missing half of the requirements.	Non-existent slides.
Content - Slide 2, Facts	Facts are interesting, unique and accurate. Adds in more than 3 cool facts!	Includes 3 facts that are ordinary.	Includes facts that are inaccurate and may be well known to general public.	Includes less than three facts.
Content - Slide 3, Elements	Evaluation of monument answers the question: Does this monument reflect its people? Includes more than 3 cultural elements. Very persuasive!	Evaluation of monument answers question using 3 cultural elements. Somewhat persuasive.	Brief evaluation of the monument. Student attempts to use cultural elements to evaluate the monument.	Did not evaluate monument using cultural elements.
Creativity	Changes slide theme, lots of pictures, adds in extra amazing stuff! WOW!	Slightly changes the slide show. A few cool extras.	Keeps slide show presentation.	